

Married

A wedding of interest to the many friends of the young couple was solemnized at the Catholic Church in Ste. Genevieve Sunday afternoon, June 19, 1921, at 2:30 o'clock, when Miss Rita Octavia Wilder became the bride of Harry A. Ebert, Rev. Father C. L. van Tourenhout officiating. The attendants were Miss Amy Wilder, a sister of the bride, and Raymond Ebert, a brother of the groom. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilder of Ste. Genevieve, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Sophia Ebert of St. Louis. The bride wore a lovely costume of gray georgette braided in blue and a white hat. Her attendant was gowned in a dove colored georgette and wore a hat to match. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party returned to the home of the bride's where a dainty luncheon dinner was served to only the near relatives, after which the happy couple accompanied by Raymond and Andrew Ebert and Harry Wilder departed by auto for St. Louis where they will make their home. The FAIR PLAY joins their many friends in wishing them much happiness.

Boy Drowned

Robert Todisnman was drowned in a slough in the lower end of the Cottonwoods, near Kaskaskia point last Sunday at noon. He and some other boys were searching for turtle eggs and had crossed the slough. On returning he is supposed to have taken a cramp and drowned 40 feet from the shore, before assistance could reach him. The body has not been recovered. Robert is the son of Mrs. William Griffith of Charleston, Mo., and was about 19 years of age.

The date of the expected appearance of meteoric showers in connection with the visit of the Pons-Winnecke comet to the solar system, has been advanced by one day according to an announcement made by Rev. Martin S. Brennen, a St. Louis astronomer. Father Brennen said that the shower should first be visible next Sunday evening instead of Monday as previously announced. The shower which is only probable, is due to particles of waste matter, left behind by the comet, being attracted by the earth and falling through its atmosphere undergoing combustion as they fall.

After June 20, Girls Under 21 Must Have Parents' Consent To Wed.

After June 20, only women who are 21 years old may be married without the consent of their parents, under an opinion by Assistant Attorney-General Albert Miller, rendered to the Secretary of State. This opinion is to the effect that House Bill No. 147 of the Fifty-first General Assembly, defining the term "minors" to include "all persons who have not attained the age of 21 years," automatically works a change in the law concerning the issuance of marriage licenses, and that from and after June 20, 1921, all persons, females as well as males, in order to secure a license to marry, shall, if they have not attained the age of 21 years, obtain the consent of his or her father, mother or guardian as the case may be, except in cases of females who shall have attained the age of 18 years prior to the 20th day of June, 1921.

Heretofore, a girl of 18 or more could obtain a license without the consent of her parents.
